Mrs. M. C. Stewart, from near Crawford, was in town Thursday. He says that his experience this year with the weevil has fully convinced him of the necessity of changing the method of farming. Cotton that is nearly shoulder high and would, under former conditions, make a bale to the acre, won't make a bale to five acres.

Mr. A. H. Cooper and family have been spending the summer at his Gresham place in Noxubee, and the rumor is that they may again make their home here. It will be a matter of great pleasure to many people if this turns out to be a fact. Mr. Cooper for a long time was one of this county's largest planters and merchants and has always retained a large interest here as well as a lively interest in the county's welfare. It would seem very appropriate for him to again make his home where he achieved the first successes of a remarkably successful career, and he and his family would be most cordially welcomed as citizens and habitants of Noxubee.

Mrs. Cavett Entertains.
On Thursday afternoon, the home of Mrs. W. M. Cavett was the scene of one of the most enjoyable social events of the early fall season, this popular young hostess having thrown open her doors to a number of Macon's matrons and maids. Eight tables were arranged for the progressive play of Forty-Two, and from four to six the assembled guests were happy in the enjoyment of this pleasant past time.

The Cavett home is ideally arranged for entertaining, and none of the several social functions there have been any more thoroughly enjoyed than was Thursday afternoon's party. The rich beauty of the autumn season was reflected in the decoration. A color scheme of yellow was carefully and artistically worked out, golden rods and ferns having been used in profusion in decorating the rooms and hall.

As the guests entered, they were served delicious and refreshing fruit punch, and later when the games were over, a two-course menu was served.

Mrs. Cavett was assisted in receiving by her mother, Mrs. S. F. Martin, her sister, Mrs. Allie Swann and Misses Sallie Spann and Rosa Swann, while Misses Louise, Bess and Hallie Lee Swann served punch.

Parent-Teachers Association

On Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 14th, there was held in the office of the superintendent a most enthusiastic meeting of the Parent-Teacher's association. The charter members of last year were very glad to welcome some new members.

The meeting was held for the purpose of discussing plans for the new school year. Mrs. E. M. Murphey, our president, tendered her resignation and it was accepted with regrets. Mrs. L. F. Holberg was then elected president.

The association has planned to meet the first Friday afternoon in each month beginning at 3:30 o'clock. All parents of the school and all interested persons are cordially invited to become members.

The following is the program for the meeting to be held Oct. 1st:

PROGRAMME

- Friday Afternoon, Oct. 1st, 3:30 o'clock:
1. Song, High School Girls
2. Business
3. General discussion "Use of School Manual in Home," led by Mrs. E. M. Murphey.

- Outline of year's work by President.

The Study Circle.

The Woman's Study Circle had its first meeting with Mrs. E. B. Boyd, on Thursday, September the sixteenth. Seventeen responded to roll call with a Munchausen story.

The program was a very interesting one. Mrs. Stokes read several short verses, after which an entertaining legend "The Flying Dutchman" was read by Mrs. Carleton. Miss Edna Bush added much to the meeting by her music, a selection from "Thanthouser." "The Ballad of Carmilhan," read by Mrs. Patty completed the program. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Barclay's Studio

Mrs. L'Estelle Barclay will open a Studio for the convenience of school children at the home of Mrs. Walter Price, across from the school grounds.

Miss Kathleen Rhymes will teach violin.

Mr. Richmond will take pupils for instruction on the flute and other string and reed instruments.

Miss Anna Negille has also consented to take a class in Domestic Art.

This should be considered a rare opportunity for all of Noxubee county—to receive instructions of these exceptional artists. We believe the material is here for development, and it will be our aim to perfect it.

Please apply to Mrs. Barclay for terms and any information concerning either branch of study, either by phone or person.

Notice, Please.

I must ask those who owe me 1914 accounts, and who owe monthly accounts which have been running for several months, or a year, to call and settle, or send check, when these accounts are mailed, which will be Oct. 1st.

I have carried these accounts until they are long past due, and I must ask for a settlement. I hope my friends and customers will attend to this matter promptly as I feel that I have carried these accounts as long as they could reasonably ask. These accounts are not large, and if it is not convenient to pay the cash, most anyone can make a bankable note for enough to cover the account.

Respectfully,
ED. M. MURPHEY.
